Who may purchase public land?

- (a) A legal citizen of the United States 18 years of age or older;
- (b) A corporation subject to the laws of any State within the United States or of the United States;
- (c) A State, State instrumentality, or political subdivision authorized to hold property; and,
- (d) An entity legally capable of conveying and holding lands or interests therein under the laws of the State within which the lands to be conveyed are located. Where applicable, the entity shall also meet the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section.

Information regarding competitive sales:

A principal or a duly qualified agent may make bids. Proof must be provided at the time of the auction.

The acceptance or rejection of any offer to purchase shall be in writing no later than 30 days after receipt of such offer unless the high bidder waives his/her right to a decision within such 30 day period. Until the acceptance of the offer and payment of the purchase price, the bidder has no contractual or other rights against the United States, and no action taken shall create any contractual or other obligations of the United States.

Name changes:

Requests to change the name (whether individual, partnership, corporate, trustee, etc.) of the patentee from the name in which the bid was made must take place prior to issuance by BLM of the High Bidder notification issued within 30 days of the bid deadline. A new Certificate of Eligibility must be submitted for any name changes. Request for changes received after the High Bidder notice has been issued will be rejected.
